Beatles vs. Stones – A Musical Shoot Out

Who is the greatest band in rock history – The Beatles or the Rolling Stones? Renowned tribute performers, Abbey Road and Jumping Jack Flash, bring a powerful multimedia show to your stage for fans of both legendary bands.

For decades, the battle has raged within musical circles. Throughout each band's history, fans have accused each one of copying one another. Now, the infamous rock and roll rivalry can be performed live on stage! "Beatles vs. Stones – A Musical Shoot Out" is fun, entertaining, and brings talented musicians together for an unforgettable night.

Were the Stones yelling for "Help" to fight the songwriting prowess of Lennon and McCartney? Were The Beatles crying "Gimme Shelter" from the relentless sonic barrage of the Jagger and Richards classics?

Many have noted that fierce competition fueled the creative output of both bands during the 1960's. Now fans can enjoy the rock star tension between two tribute acts of equally entertaining performances. The Rolling Stones were often considered to be original punks, while The Beatles came upon the scene as mods more so than rockers.

"Beatles vs. Stones – A Musical Shoot Out" is the ultimate battle of the bands. The show pits the mop tops against the bad boys. It's like London against Liverpool. Only one band shall emerge victorious. No matter who wins, the audience will be to be dazzled by the fantastic music, iconic wardrobe, and spot on performances.

The talented members of Abbey Road and Jumping Jack Flash have taken great care to recreate the experience of these incredible bands to please casual music fans as well as genre purists.

They capture the imagination and the raw energy of The Beatles and the Rolling Stones in their prime and beyond. This rich showcase returns fans to the musical genius of these international superstars.

Professional, talented, and highly detailed, "Beatles vs. Stones – A Musical Shoot Out" will fill your venue with great music and get the audience dancing, singing, and screaming. This stage show is perfect for casino entertainment, music venues, theatres, outdoor festivals, major events, and large concert halls.
