He has performed in Nashville at Broadway Music Hall and the popular Tootsie's. Even Bob's own music has been greatly influenced by the style of Waylon Jennings.

From Waylon's days with the Outlaw Country movement, his critically acclaimed albums Lonesome On'ry and Mean, Honky Tonk Heroes, Dreaming My Dreams, Are You Ready for the Country, to his final album, Will the Wolf Survive – Bob Gill performs the hits that Waylon fans love and remember. Bob maintains a thoughtful repertoire of Waylon's music and currently performs the most songs ever released by him in loving tribute.
