Jim Curry – A Tribute to John Denver

Often performing with John Denver’s own former band members, Jim Curry’s Tribute to the Music of John Denver is a heartfelt and moving performance that gets audiences swaying, clapping, and smiling.

John Denver was the hit singer-songwriter of multi-platinum hits like “Rocky Mountain High,” “Annie’s Song” and “Calypso” He was also a beloved environmental and humanitarian activist. Jim Curry believes that John Denver’s words still ring true in these difficult times of war and environmental crisis.

The untimely death of John Denver’s in 1997 was a tragedy that was felt the world over. CBS television responded by producing a made for TV movie, “Take Me Home, the John Denver Story” in which Jim Curry performed off-camera role singing as the voice of John Denver. This experience inspired Jim to perform his John Denver tribute concerts. □

Jim is not just an impersonator. Jim sings in his own natural voice, to the music in pure honesty. His looks and his voice are simply a pleasant coincidence that captures the true essence of John Denver’s music.

Jim delivers John’s songs with the same heartfelt care and desire to make a difference. As the concerns of global warming and other environmental issues reach today’s youth, Curry sees a growing number of younger listeners enjoying Denver’s musical message.

Curry says, “These songs blend the images of our natural earth with a love for each other as people. The care you give to someone you love is the best care. Making that connection to our earth and to each other is the goal.” □
