Shania Twain – The Ultimate Tribute to Shania Twain

Shania Twain - The Ultimate Tribute to Shania Twain is an energizing performance from the beautiful and talented Donna Huber as Shania Twain.

When Donna Huber first appeared in the spectacular Las Vegas Show, "American Country Superstars" fans were hooked. As an experienced entertainer and recording artist, her performances have audiences screaming for more!

Donna Huber is from Ontario, Canada and quickly became known as the renowned Shania Twain tribute artist once she started performing live on stage. Even Shania Twain herself exclaimed that Huber is the best Shania Twain tribute artist in the business. Her solo performances bring together the fans that love her as she performs songs that include "Man, I Feel Like a Woman", "From This Moment On", "That Don't Impress Me Much", "The Woman In Me", and "I Ain't No Quitter". Donna is definitely not a quitter as her performances worldwide have even earned her a mention in Shania Twain's own Autobiography. Shania Twain had once commented after seeing a poster of Donna, "I thought that was me! Donna is the best Shania Twain Tribute out there".

Donna put in countless hours practicing to sing like Shania, watching her videos over and over, studying to emulate her moves and the way she presented herself. She has been featured on CBC, TNN, CMT Magazine, and countless other national media outlets. She has recorded a song as a duet with Canadian Recording Artist, John Mackintosh, and has produced her own song collection titled "Bring it On".

Whether you are booking an event for a large corporation in need of a unique country performance - or a casino owner looking for entertainment that will excite your audiences - no one performs a better live tribute to Shania Twain. As one of the most successful tribute acts in Canada, the United States, and Europe - Shania Twain is exceptional entertainment for concert venues, special events, performing arts centers, clubs, private parties, fairs, festivals, and rodeos.
