The BusBoys

The BusBoys took rhythm and blues roots music and into a blazing, amazing multi-dimensional rock and roll career trail. Under the creative and musical leadership of founder Brian O'Neal, they lit up big and small screens, electrified concert stages, and thrilled multitudes of fans.

The BusBoys are often best known for their acclaimed on-screen performance in the Paramount Pictures blockbuster, "48 HRS." Their work has been released on four major label albums, including the soundtrack for "Ghostbusters" which earned a Grammy nomination. The group has toured extensively, either headlining or co-headlining with acts that include: Linda Ronstadt, Brian Setzer and The Stray Cats, ZZ Top, and Eddie Murphy. During their many television appearances, they have rocked "American Bandstand," "Soul Train," "Rock Concert" and "Saturday Night Live."

"Spread the word! The Boys are back!"

From touring to filming documentaries and movies, The BusBoys continue to share their talent on stage with other gifted performers such as Ray Parker, Jr., Otis Day, and Willie Chambers. A new television show featuring The BusBoys and Special Guests made its debut in 2012 and featured live performances, vintage footage, rock and roll stories, and other points of interest.

The best news is that The BusBoys are still performing live. Their live show is perfect for large venues, festivals, and special events. Club and casino owners know that they are not just getting a great musical show, but also a group that can be considered the icons of their genre. Get those dancing shoes ready for some rocking rhythm and blues with Brian O'Neal and The BusBoys!
